Murphy Mustang Weekly Newsletter

September 24 - 28

News:

Greetings parents and guardians. This is a reminder that Wednesday, September 26th the district will host a Naviance training for all middle school and high school parents and guardians. The training will be in the boardroom at the district office from 8:30 a.m.-9:30 am. The training will be in English with Spanish translation available. This training is the same training given on September 12th and will be repeated on October 30th 6:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m. in Spanish with English Translation. Please contact your school's counselor or administration if you have questions about your Naviance account.

Has your 7th or 8th grade student returned the Chromebook Condition Form? This paperwork was given to each student on August 30th during Murphy's Chromebook Roll-out. Please return the signed copy, filled-out completely to the front office or library. Extra copies are available at the front office or library.

To the families of 7th and 8th graders only. The deadline to purchase Chromebook insurance is September 28th. Follow the link on the Martin Murphy Homepage under Parent Chromebook Information to purchase insurance online. All Chromebooks must be inspected by the librarian in the final step of the insurance process. If you have questions, please contact Ms. Pansoy the librarian.

First Wrestling practice is on October 1, 2018 immediately after school.

If your student has any health issues please submit any doctors note to Eileen Neuder health clerk she can be reached at 408-201-6260 ext 31131. Greetings parents and guardians.

Martin Murphy Dress Code Guiding Principles: Attire must promote safety for the individual and the school. Attire must be appropriate for a school environment.
